

LUCY AMELLIA

May 6, 1926 - March 3, 2026

Our Sweet Lucy went to join all of her family and friends on March 3, 2026. She gave to those of us left behind tons of laughter and so much love. Lucy was not famous in the literal sense of the word; but, she was someone you could never forget. They say you die twice. Once it is your physical death. The second is when your name is spoken the last time. Mom, Aunt, Friend: I just don't see that as a possibility. You are and will ALWAYS BE "OUR ONLY SUNSHINE."

She was predeceased by her husband Fred in 1986.

Lucy leaves on earth her legacy of love: Her son; Joseph (Debbie) Amellio, daughter; Donna, daughter; Dina (Anthony) LaValle; grandchildren, Matthew (Lisa) Arduini, Danielle (Jay) Richmond, Justin (Eric) Amellio-Ashbrook and Anthony LaValle; beloved great-grandchildren; Aletta & Luciana Arduini, cherished nieces & nephews; James (Dolly) Iannettoni, Dr. Mark (Ann) Iannettoni, Andrea (Jim) & Jaimie Carelton and Christopher (Susan) Iannettoni.

As per her wishes, no services will be held. Private entombment was in Woodlawn Cemetery, Syracuse. BAGOZZI TWINS FUNERAL HOME, Solvay, has care of arrangements.

Please share online tributes and memories at www.bagozzitwins.com.

“ Donna, Dina and Joe, I just loved your Mom. She had the most contagious joy that she spread with her humor and wit. I think when we were kids, she was our Youth Minister. We loved being at your house and she was always genuinely interested in our lives. My Mother loved her so... please know my prayers and sympathy are with you and all your family. God love her and keep her in eternal joy! I am so sorry but so blessed to have known her.

“ Dina, Donna and Joe, What do you say about our wonderful neighbor? One night, about midnight, our friends were leaving our house. Walking out the door, there was Lucy standing in her backyard looking into her kitchen window. Arne and myself asked her if she was okay. she turned to us and asked if we liked her new curtains. We all stood there looking at her curtains. With that she said no no, picture the without the wrinkles. There stood 4 adults, laughing like crazy. Rest in Peace our beautiful, funny Lucy, you are missed.

“ Donna, Dina and Joe, I was just looking at the picture of Lucy and my mom holding their first grandchildren. So many memories, hard to speak of just one. Fast forward to when she came to Just Friends and she would tell Dennis, Don't tell Karen what happens at Just Friends Fellowship. What happens in Just Friends Fellowship stays at Just Friends Fellowship. 😊 She always had something fun to say. Loved her. Praying for you all. ❤️

“ Lucy was one of the kindest and sweetest ladies I've known with a sense of humor to match. I remember many a times visiting her while growing up and laughing at her antics. She was a second mom to many of us kids. You will certainly be missed Lucy. We'll see you on the other side and what a grand reunion that will be for us all. ❤️❤️❤️

Donna, Joe & Dina, Sending prayers and hugs. Your Mom was a delight! I wouldn't see her often, but when I did, she made me feel like we had just talked. She was a joy to be around. Our loss, but heaven's gain. Blessings to all.

Donna, Dina and Joe

Your Mom was a gift to everyone. Her interest in our families both near and far, reminiscing about our parents and the times we all spent together many years ago is a treasure that will remain with us. Her wonderful sense of humor always made us enjoy our special moments together and God truly blessed her. She has left a lasting legacy for all of you. We send our love and prayers of comfort and peace.

*Blessings,
