

LYNN STANLEY BANNER

September 15, 1953 - July 20, 2024

Lynn Stanley Banner, born on September 15, 1953, in Syracuse, New York, passed away on July 20, 2024 in Texas. Lynn grew up in Syracuse and attended Marcellus High School, graduating in 1972. His childhood was marked by his involvement in the Boy Scouts, where he developed a love for the outdoors and community service.

Lynn married his best friend of 44 years and beloved wife of 17 years, Barbara Banner, affectionately calling her his “cupcake.” Together, they built a life filled with love and companionship.

A dedicated and hardworking individual, Lynn was a valued employee at McGinnis/Sewell Cadillac for 44 years, where he was honored with the Employee of the Year Award for his outstanding service and commitment. Lynn had a passion for various hobbies including hockey, bowling, woodworking, flying model planes, model trains, puzzles, and playing video games on his PS5. He was also an avid baseball fan and enjoyed coaching both baseball and soccer. His creativity shone through his work as a set designer and builder for Katy High School.

Lynn is survived by his loving wife Barbara; his sons, David Banner, Daryl Banner, Joseph Fox, and Brandon Fox; his grandson Jordan Banner; his mother Elinor Banner; his siblings Becky Banner, Amy Banner, and Bruce Banner; and his loyal game buddy, Tikaani. He also leaves behind many cherished nieces, nephews and in-laws.

He was preceded in death by his father, Stanley Banner, and his daughter,

Jennifer Banner.

Lynn's memory will live on in the hearts of those who knew and loved him. He will be deeply missed but never forgotten.

Services were held in Texas. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in Lynn's memory to a charity of your choice.
