“ Lysle was the best. Always so much fun to be around. A real stand up guy. Lysle taught me how to bet on the horses in Saratoga. And also how playing Super Bowl boards can be profitable. We took several wine tasting adventures and indulged in many fantastic dinners with the gang, although wine consumption didn't help our combined tipping abilities. I consider Lysle one of my heros. I will miss him 💜

“ Lesley and I first met in high school where we played sports together . We became close friends and remained so during our lifetime . We were best men during each other’s weddings .

When I was at Syracuse university our intramural team played a game against Lysle’s team at CCBI where Lesley was a top scorer and he graduated from there in the later 1950’s.

When we were in the working world Lesley and I were roommates in Skaneateles during summer months for two years. We played recreational basketball and softball together as long as we were still capable of doing so. We remained close with Lesley and Esther and their family throughout our lives. Our love and condolence’s to his family .

“ The times spent with Lysle during our family gatherings for holidays or birthdays were always brightened by Lysles infectious smile. I will remember that smile most of all. Our thoughts are with the entire family during this difficult time.
