

MAGWINN RANSOM EMMICK

September 26, 2000 - November 17, 2020

Magwinn Ransom Emmick (“Pickle”, “Bo”) passed away on November 16, 2020, in the home that he loved, and in the arms of his Mama.

Born on a chaotic but joyful night at Crouse Hospital in September of 2000, Magwinn was rushed to the NICU, where he spent the first six months of his life, showing us right away that he was not a person to be underestimated.

With a rare birth defect that affected his lungs and heart, his parents were not given great hope for a long life for him, nor any promises that it would be a full and happy one. With the guiding hearts and hands of his NICU doctors and nurses, specialists, pediatricians- specifically Dr. Remillard and Dr. Losito and their wonderful staff, his therapists Liz and Terri, and his friends and adoring family, he surpassed any expectations, and lived a very long, happy and loved 20 years.

From the night of his birth, (and probably before!), Magwinn had a determination to fiercely conquer any and all challenges set before him. In his own time and with his unique way, he learned to walk, speak, play, read, ride in his dad’s bicycle cart, pet the farm animals, feed the giraffes, fly like a pirate in his boat swing, hold the hand of every person he met, say “hi” to every stranger, take car rides around town with his family, go through every drive-thru he could just to interact with the window attendant, and wait all year for “Lights on the Lake” to start. He loved classic Disney movies (especially Robin Hood), the Muppets (especially Kermit), Emmet Otter, cookie frosting, root beer, McDonald’s french fries, brown cows, donkeys, Mama’s chalkboard drawings for him, his cherished blanket, computer and never-empty cup of ice water.

For many years, when Magwinn was away from the house he knew for most of his life for any length of time, he would let his family know it was time to return by saying "to my home!". We know that our forever-child is now in the tender, loving arms of God, warm and resting within his little red house, and that he has arrived home at last.

No service is planned at this time, but we ask that you celebrate Magwinn's life by giving to a child in need.

“ I was fortunate enough to be invited to be in the company of Magwinn after years of hearing many wonderful stories about him from his adoring Aunt Maureen. What a treat. His Lala served as navigator into Magwinn's world as I entered their house and I was immediately struck by the incredible amount of care his Mother must have given throughout his life to be so knowledgeable of Magwinn's every thought and movement so he could navigate his life so thoroughly and safely. Such steadfast devotion. Magwinn and I greeted each other and visited for awhile. Such a joyful soul and resilient being you could not help but to smile in his presence. Thank you for allowing for us to meet he surely will be missed. Blessings in heaven to your miracle baby who now lays in Jesus's arms. I pray the love of God enfolds you during your most difficult of times until you meet again. ❤️ Karen Barbose
