“ Peggy and I shared a room at Elderwood during Covid so it was just the two of us. Nobody was allowed to visit. Believe it or not we had fun. I celebrated my 79th Birthday with her. There were lots of cards, several flower arrangements and balloons. We even had signs in the yard outside our window wishing me "Happy Birthday". We had cakes, candy, and fruit which we shared with the staff. She was a delightful person and we remained friends. I will miss her.

“ I had the pleasure of working with Peggy for many years while she worked for Jim Bandoblu. She was always quick with a joke and just a delight to be around. I loved hearing stories about her travels with her husband. I will miss her. My sympathies are with Peggy's family.
