“ To The Thomsen Family: I send my deepest sympathy to all of you. I did not know your wife/mother, but I was the lady who spoke to Deborah and the Doctor had been in to speak with Deborah and your Dad. I was your wife/mother's roommate over night when you received the difficult news. I also go to Holy Family Church. I wanted to come to the wake to pay my respects to your family, but I am sick and not up to it. I am doing better in regard to my recent hospitalization and was found by my Physician that I had had a minor TIA. I am so glad that your wife/mother was able to go home and be with her family when God decided to bring her home to Him. Be assured and comforted in knowing that she suffers no more; she is pain free. She will always be with all of you in your memories; she is only a prayer away. Mr. Thomsen take good care of yourself. You need to rest now; I heard you were a great care-taker for a long time; God Bless you. I found out this past Wed. that my MS is getting a bit worse, but I will take great hope and strength from your wife/mother. Deborah told me how long Mrs. Thomsen had suffered with it, so I will try not to get discouraged and will continue to have great faith. To all of you, God's Blessings be with. Again, I am so sorry for your loss; be thankful that Mrs. Thomsen is at peace. Prayers and healing thoughts to all of you.

“ When I think of Mrs. Thomsen, the first thing that always comes to mind is her outstanding smile. Just seeing her smile always made me smile. I know she's up in heaven with her sister and my Dad, creating a little havoc and smiling away. But she will be missed down here. Love to all the Thomsens.

“ What an incredible woman - beautiful in so many ways. She was blessed with a wonderful husband and family who continually enhanced her life through love and support. She was also the most positive fan Syracuse University could have - always believing their basketball and football teams would prevail, no matter who the opponent was. I am truly honored to have had the opportunity to spend time with her over the years and will really miss her. Tara
