

MARY (DeNIGRO) CARDONE

June 1, 1916 - November 19, 2020

Mary "Jenny" Cardone, 104, was called home to be with God and her family on November 19, 2020. Born June 1, 1916 in Utica to the late Anthony and Philomena (Stoio) DeNigro. She married Joseph Cardone in 1935, and eventually moved to Syracuse in 1946. She worked at General Electric as an inspector for 28 years retiring in 1981. In her retirement she became a good golfer and bowler. She enjoyed playing cards and watching pro football on Sunday's, rooting for her three favorite teams, Dallas Cowboys, Miami Dolphins and San Francisco 49er's.

She is predeceased by her husband, Joseph Cardone (1986) and her son, Luke Cardone (2010).

She is survived by her son, Richard Cardone, of Sarasota, FL; daughter-in-law, Elaine Cardone, of Solvay; granddaughters, Stephanie (Curt) Stiles, of Cicero and Lauren (Mike) Bellobuono, of Connecticut; grandson, Matthew (Jill) Cardone, of Connecticut; great-grandchildren, Haleigh and Nicholas Hayduk, of Cicero and Sammy, Joey and Charley Bellobuono, of Connecticut; as well as several loving nieces, nephews and cousins.

She leaves behind a loving and grateful family for showing us how to grow old gracefully and with love.

She is safely at home. Rest well "GG".

“ Well my dear cousin has finally got her wish, to be with her husband, son, immediate family and friends. What wonderful wonderful memories I have of my growing up years with "Jenny" as I knew her, The holiday's, picnic's, wedding's and just family get togethers. She brought this great smile, laugh, great husband Joe and to boy's Luke & Richard/Rick.to our DeNigro, Ruggiero, Giffune and MIneo get-to-gethers. Thank you for being you and for all the love you brought to our family. God Bless you and R.I.P.

Elaine, Thanks for the care you gave her. She Loved Ya!
