“ I first met Mary at 15 years old. She was a great influence and teacher in those young, formative years of my life. She was a wonderful homemaker, cook, baker, seamstress to name just a few. Everything she put her hands to was a labor of love. She had the gift of hospitality and a welcoming, loving spirit. I watched and learned. She touched my life. Sometimes we think little things don't mean much but they do. They impact our lives. As scripture says, we are to be "living epistles read by men." Mary fulfilled this with the gift and example she was. Thank you Mary----now is your eternal reward.
