“ Mary Rose was my Sunday school teacher back in the early 70s.. I can still hear her kind words and how she had the ability to bring those bible stories alive.. I also used to mow her lawn and enjoyed several meals at her amazing home in Westvale....she was a great lady..

I was so shocked to read about Mary Rose's death. I was able to visit here at Loretto Cunningham in December. She was as sharp as always. What a great lady. Miss he.
