

MICHAEL J. GASAPO

November 13, 1926 - August 25, 2024

Michael J. Gasapo, 97, of Solvay, passed away peacefully on August 25, 2024. The only child of Primitibo and Granada (Corzo) Gasapo, Mike was a lifelong resident of Solvay and a parishioner of St. Cecilia's Catholic Church. Upon graduation from Solvay High School in 1945, Mike served in the United States Army training new recruits. He graduated with an Associate's Degree from Utica Tech followed by a short career playing minor league baseball with the St Louis Browns affiliate team in Olean, NY.

Mike returned to Solvay, marrying Beverly Gibbons, his wife of 52 years. He was employed by Allied Chemical before retiring in 1985. Mike happily devoted his time to many Solvay causes, including the Solvay-Geddes Veterans, Solvay Volunteer Fire Department, The Hilltop Club, The Tyrol Club, and the Solvay-Geddes Community Youth Center. He coached many teams for the Solvay Tigers and St. Cecilia's CYO. He enjoyed golf, reading, and was an avid NY Yankee fan. Most of all, he enjoyed spending time with his family and cherished friends, often in the garage on Bacon Street.

Mike was predeceased by his parents and loving wife. He is survived by his sons, Michael (Sara) and Jim (Carol); five grandchildren, James (Helen), Steven (Hannah), Daniel (Kana), Monica (Josh) and Laura; his great grandchildren Brooklyn Marsh, Charlotte Gasapo and Michael Gasapo.

“ Mike and Jim

I am saddened to learn of your father's passing. He was a good man and valued friend to me and to many. In a very positive way, your father touched the lives of a lot of people, especially the thousands of youngsters he coached in the splendor years of the Solvay Tiger's sports program. Time is such a precious commodity; he was very generous with his. Rest in Peace Mike.
