“ The unconditional love you gave your children and joy they brought to your life is what I will remember the most about you! Thank you for giving us 2 beautiful grandsons. Jamison is very much like you! Kc is definitely a daddy's boy! We will watch over the boys with you always in the forefront. It was so evident to see how in love you were with your new baby girl. All three are blessed to have had you as their father. Gone way too soon. We will all miss you and remember you happy go lucky.. smiling big.. laughing and cracking jokes. Cooking up a storm. Fly high!! Hug Katie for us . I'm so sorry . We will miss you and always love you! See you at sunrise!!

“ I am shocked and saddened to learn of Michael's death. He was in my third grade class at Cherry Road School, and I remember him as a fun loving, happy-go-lucky young man. He enjoyed making others laugh! My heartfelt condolences go out to his family and friends.
