

MIRANDA KAY CONE

July 28, 1995 - July 31, 2022

On July 31, 2022, our beautiful Miranda, is once again reunited with her brother and best friend. Miranda passed away peacefully at home with her mother at her side, after a very long battle with an eating disorder.

She was predeceased by her father, Michael Cone, her brother and best friend, Bradley Cone, her maternal grandfather, John Mahardy, Sr., her maternal grandmother, Catherine (Rice) Mahardy, her uncles, John Mahardy, Jr. and Robert Mahardy, as well as her paternal grandfather, Charles Cone.

Miranda is survived by her mother, Donna (Mahardy) Cone, of Camillus and her sweet girl, Pixlie as well as many aunts, uncles and cousins.

Miranda is my hero, someone that I aspire to be when I grow up. She was the strongest person that I have ever known and she fought so very hard to overcome these horrible diseases that she was given.

She had the biggest and kindest heart and everyone she came into contact with were the better for having known her. Her smile and those beautiful brown eyes, had a way of making you feel better, touching your heart. She had love and compassion for everyone and if you had the pleasure of knowing her, you know that you have been blessed.

I wish that Miranda could have seen herself, her beautiful self, the way that EVERYONE else saw her. I wish she had known how many people she had touched in her life.

You are finally at peace my dear Miranda and I know that you are so happy. Family and friends may call from 4:00 – 7:00 PM Monday August 8th at BAGOZZI TWINS FUNERAL HOME, 2601 Milton Avenue, Solvay. Memorial services and interment in St. Mary's Cemetery, Cleveland, will be private. Please share online memories and tributes at www.bagozzitwins.com.

“ I didn't know Miranda but I graduated from Solvay High in '90. I have had an eating disorder since I was 16 and battle recovery every day. You have suffered a great many losses between your husband, son, and now Miranda. I just need you to know people are praying even from afar. I'm so terribly sorry for your loss.

“ I don't have a memory to share as I didn't know her personally. My heart breaks for the family. My daughter, now 29 yrs old, has suffered with eating disorders most of her life. She was hospitalized at the age of 12 for close to 6 months due to anorexia. I am so sorry. I wish more help was available for this wretched disease. Rest easy.

“ I am so happy that you are finally at peace. I know 1st hand how hard and long of a battle you had. You will forever be my little sister. I will cherish all the sleep overs, playing at grandma's; talking literally everyday. You knew I was married before anyone else. Nothing golden last forever

I am heartbroken by the passing of your daughter. This beautiful girl always had a warm welcome, kind remark, and genuine concern for others at work. She brought popsicles to share with my sister and always asked about my family who struggles with our own demons. We spoke about those people who always seem to carry a heavy burden. Why particular people? We talked about the fact that we might never know, that people like her and I might be there to help someone else; sharing our experience. What an amazing example of strength in someone so young. I will always think of her when I see a bold, bright flower in someone’s hair, a plaid shirt, and of course fire, red hair that matches her spirit. Kelly Kelly
