

NANCY MARIE BIANCHI

March 19, 1949 - August 13, 2024

It is with deep sorrow that we announce the passing of Nancy Marie Bianchi, a cherished sister, aunt, and friend. Nancy passed away peacefully, leaving behind a legacy of dedication, service, and love that will be remembered by all who knew her. Nancy was born on March 19, 1949 to the late Pelleno John and Mary Elizabeth (Miller) Bianchi.

Nancy was a devoted public servant, spending many years in a distinguished career with the government and military. Her commitment to her work was a reflection of her unwavering sense of duty and pride in serving her country. She touched the lives of many through her professionalism, integrity, and kindness.

Beyond her career, Nancy was a loving sister to Danny, Bill and Dorine Bianchi. She was a devoted aunt to her beloved niece, Cheyenne Bianchi, and nephew, Cross Bianchi. Nancy had no children of her own, but she embraced her family with a deep and abiding love, always offering support, wisdom, and care.

Nancy will be remembered for her generous spirit, her quiet strength, and her ability to bring comfort to those around her. She leaves behind a family who adored her and countless friends and colleagues who were privileged to know her. In this time of sorrow, we find comfort in knowing that Nancy's legacy of service, love, and kindness will continue to live on in the hearts of all who knew her. She will be greatly missed but never forgotten.

May she rest in peace.

“ I grew up right behind Wilmont, on Myron Rd., and Nancy and I shared so many memories as children, and adults, but lost touch over the years. So sorry to hear of her passing, thought of her many times and wanted to get together, but it never happened. Prayers and peace to family and loved ones. RIP Nancy, see you in heaven.
