“Nicholas, Nick as we knew him, was a fellow resident of my brother Joe Guido. Whenever I visited my brother, Nick being true to his Italian heritage, would always greet me offering something sweet to eat. His sharing of goodies with a smile on his face, gave one a view to his warm heart. Nick will surely be missed by everyone who had the good fortune to have known him. May God receive Nick with the same warmth Nick showed everyone who had the good fortune to cross paths with him. Francis O. Guido

“Aunt Ro, we are so sorry to hear of Nick's passing. You have "earned" your place in heaven. Remember when we talked recently, living to an old age has it's sorrows. No one should out live their children. We can't be with you when you need family the most, but we will add Nick to our prayer list of family that have passed.
Love,
Sally & Joe
