“ It was a pleasure meeting your dad, Nick, at Cottage 87. I'll always remember having chats on the porch with him and my mom, Van. He told me all about his life ventures and what led him to moving to Syracuse. I know he's already missed by so many. With deepest sympathy,

“ Nick-you were a constant at any and all family events when I was a kid. Your sense of humor was infectious...we shared many laughs---and some at events or family gatherings where we "shouldn't have been laughing". Rest easy...the journey here is done. Thanks for being a part of my life.

“ Peace to you, Nick, my lifelong drum buddy. Our chats were always the best! Memories of your face lighting up, and all the knowledge you shared, will remain in my heart long after the tears I cry today dry away. Much love to Cherie, Greg, and all who held you dear.
