

NICHOLAS R. PAGANO

December 15, 1922 - February 18, 2018

Nicholas Rocco Pagano, 95, of Geddes, passed away Sunday at St. Camillus Health and Rehabilitation Center. He was born in Syracuse to the late Amedo and Rosina (Cuoco) Pagano in 1922. He was a US Army Veteran of World War II. Nicholas worked at Continental Can Co. for many years before retiring. He was a communicant of St. Charles Borromeo Church. He enjoyed stamp collecting, bowling, golf and gardening. He predeceased by his grandson Craig Todeschini, sister, Mary Raite and brothers, Joseph, Ray and Louis.

Nicholas is survived by his wife of 75 years, the former Josephine Dambro, 2 daughters, Sandra (Joe) Jachim and Cynthia (Jim) Todeschini, both of Syracuse, a son, Robert (Sue) Pagano, of Odessa, FL, grandchildren, great grandchildren, nieces and nephews.

There are no calling hours. The Rite of Committal in St. Mary's Resurrection Chapel Mausoleum, DeWitt, was private.

His family wishes to thank the staff of 3 North at St. Camillus for their loving care along with Dr. Joseph Barry.

BAGOZZI TWINS FUNERAL HOME, Solvay, has care of arrangements.

In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made in his memory to the Craig J. Todeschini Memorial Scholarship, c/o Onondaga Community College, OCC Foundation, Inc., Mulroy Hall, 4585 W. Seneca Turnpike, Syracuse, NY 13215.

“ Cindy,
I just heard about your Dad I am so sorry. He was such a sweet man. I remember the first time I met him he hugged me and had such a big smile on his face. You were so very lucky to have had him for so long. Please give your Mom a hug from me she also is such a sweet lady. May he rest in peace.
