“ Pat was married to my older brother Ned until his death in January 1983. I met Pat when Ned brought her home to meet our parents. When we met, I was 9 or 10 and Ned was 27-28. It felt like we had known her forever. She was always very kind and comforting to me especially during the time of my father's illness and death when I was only 12. She was a wonderful wife, sister, mother, aunt and friend. We will miss her sense of humor, laugh, and cooking especially cookies and sauerbraten and fried noodles that nobody could make as good as Pat! She missed Ned terribly for 35 years. The blessing is that they are now together for eternity. Frani Real Traynor
