“ He is one of the most quoted men in my life. I have so many stories that I have shared with my own family about 'growing up' in the DiGiulio house, largely revolving around Paul and Gloria. On many Sunday afternoons following a large bowl of macaroni, 'Dad' would offer more, for which I sometimes declined, and he would say "What? You don't like my food? Have more!"

He was so so giving, so generous and kind to me, and to so many others. I will always have the fondest memories of him.

My sympathy to Maryann, Mike, Diane and my dear friend Paula. I know how much you all love him and will so miss his presence in your lives.

“ Paul has the best smile. I will always remember him walking up to me at the family picnic offering to "help" carry the chicken, which we all knew was code for "first dibs." That is where Ricky had learned it. He was always smiling always happy to see everyone, loved by all. He will be truly missed.

*The LaManna family will be forever grateful for the generosity of Paul (and Gloria) for all of the support and love they've given to our family, especially grandpa Jojo over the years. Paul's kindness, smile and chuckle will live in all of his immediate and extended family forever. What a great guy.
