

PHILLIP "BUTCH" DANNIBLE JR.

January 2, 1956 - March 13, 2023

Phillip "Butch" Dannible, Jr, 67, of Syracuse, passed away on Monday. He was born in Syracuse to the late Phillip Dannible Sr and Henrietta (Irwin) Dannible. He grew up in Camillus and attended the West Genesee School District. Phil loved music, both listening and playing it. He played the guitar, harmonica and ukulele. He loved to sing classic rock songs, especially the Beatles. He was artistic in his younger years and did drawing, woodworking and ceramics. He was very smart and knew a lot about history and the presidents. Phil had a wonderful sense of humor. Many people cared for him and he touched their hearts. He had many friends and was very generous, always putting them before himself. Eleven years ago he met the love of his life Holly Williams. She was truly his soulmate and they would sing together while he played his guitar. Phil was a free spirit and had a strong faith in God.

Phillip is survived by his sisters, Pam (Paul) Bianchi, of Liverpool and Donna (Bill) Cerio, of CA, his brother, Joseph, of VA, niece and nephew, Heather and Tommy Bianchi, of Liverpool, nephew, Joseph Jr, of VA, nephew and great nephew, Ezra Cerio and Elliot Cerio, of CA.

Family and friends may call from 5:00 to 7:00 PM Thursday March 16th at BAGOZZI TWINS FUNERAL HOME, Solvay. A Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated 10:00 AM Friday March 17th at Holy Family Church, Syracuse. Entombment will follow in Greenlawn Memorial Park's Serenity Mausoleum. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in his memory to Francis House, 108 Michaels Ave, Syracuse, NY 13208.
