“ Dear Rich and Diane,

We are deeply saddened by the news of Dickey's passing.

No words will ease the pain and loss you feel at this time; just know that you are in our thoughts and prayers.

May the fond memories you cherish, sustain you in this most difficult time.

And may the gentle hand of the Lord lead him to eternal peace.

“ Dear Uncle Dick and Aunt Cha, we are so sad to hear about Dickie. Even though we haven't seen him recently he will always be remembered in our memories of the times we were able to spend with him at Family Reunions and summers at camp. Kathy still calls me a "bucksnot" Dickie added that to her vocabulary the first year she met him. We still chuckle about that to this day. Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you during this sad time. Looking forward to the day we make the trip back and are able spend time with all of you.

*Love Always,
Ray, Kathy Ptak and family*

“ *Dearest Dick and Cha,
Words are quite simply inadequate to express what you are feeling now. Dickie was your pride and joy (which is how he introduced himself to me!). My prayers go out to your entire family -- his wife, and the two of you, and those charming girls he was so proud to call his own. Certainly the world is a lot darker without him. Fill that dark space with your love and care and remembrance of this good and kind man whom you raised to be a true gentleman. You are all in my thoughts, and in my prayers, and always, always in my heart. Love to you -*

“ Dick and Cha, so very sorry for your loss as Dickie was the love and light of your lives. May that light shine bright in the eyes and hearts of his beautiful Ella and Claudia. He fought the long, hard fight, but I have to think God did not want him to suffer anymore. May he Rest In Peace and watch over you all 🙏💔

“ Mr. & Mrs. Amato I am so sorry for your loss. Dickie was like a brother growing up and we shared a lot of good times together. He will be missed very much by anyone who spent time with him. Way too many happy memories to share here, but I can say he always lived life to the fullest. Rest in Peace Train, you will be missed.
