

RONALD J. ANTOLINI

November 16, 1927 - October 27, 2020

Ronald J. Antolini, 92, of Syracuse, passed away on Tuesday, October 27th. He was born in Readsboro, Vermont to the late Peter and Alice (Delaiti) Antolini. Ronald graduated from Solvay High School and was employed for over 40 years at Carrier Corporation/United Technologies. Ronald was also well known throughout Central New York as a farmer at the Regional Market since the 1960's and was also a vendor at the Saugerties Garlic Festival for 26 years.

He was a communicant of St. Marianne Cope Parish-Our Lady of Peace Church, a member of the Tyrol Club of Solvay, had a love for nature, gardening at "The Antolini Plantation," fishing, hunting, making Tyrolean foods, and enjoying the activities of his grandchildren.

Ronald is survived by his wife of 61 years, Lillian (Williams) Antolini, daughters; Stephanie (Neal) Stein and Elizabeth (Michael) Hepp, sisters; Eleanor Sabene and Norma Salvatore, grandchildren; Steven Hepp, Julia Stein, Alexandria Hepp, and David Stein, and nephews; James Sabene and Dr. Matthew Salvatore.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated Friday at 10 am at St. Marianne Cope Parish-Our Lady of Peace Church, 203 Halcomb Street, Lakeland, with visitation prior to the commencement of the Mass from 9:30 am – 10:00 am. Interment will immediately follow the Mass at Sacred Heart Cemetery in Lakeland.

BAGOZZI TWINS FUNERAL HOME, Solvay, has care of arrangements.

In lieu of flowers, donations to The Tyrol Club, 213 Lamont Ave, Solvay, NY 13209, would be appreciated.

Please share online memories and tributes at www.bagozzitwins.com.

“ We worked with Ronnie in TR-2 for a number of years. We were his customers at the Regional Market for Garlic and visited him at his Plantation for Garlic once or twice after he retired from he Market. He was always so happy to see anyone from Carrier and greeted them with a big smile and asked how they were doing..

With Deepest Sympathies to the Family,

Ronald and Carol Fairbank
