“ We have the fondest memories of Rose during holidays and family events. Rose was the most kind, loving and generous person in our life's. After we moved away while back visiting we shared our special times with Rose having great conversations and her devotion to family while enjoying food (a little beer) at her favorite restaurants.

“ My condolences to Rose’s family and friends. I remember years ago starting at the age of 11 my grandmother Rose Saya taking me on the Pompeii bus trips to NYC. I was the only child on the bus trips. The ladies were so fun and kind to me especially Rose!! I can only hope Rose and my dear grandmother ,who was my best friend , are traveling and watching musicals in Heaven!! ❤️Ruth Ann Saya Sears-O’Connor

“ Judge, Lisa and family,

Our heartfelt sympathy to all of you. I can imagine how wonderfully she is welcomed in Heaven by her family, friends, and fans.

That famous song by Bette Midler in The Rose.... “Just remember, during the winter, far beneath the bitter snow, that there's a seed that with the sun's love in the spring becomes a rose.”

With love,
