“ This is a story I would like to share about Rosemary: My mother (who most of you reading this knows as Aunt Viola) was anguishing over the fact she had to have a wedding breakfast for her goddaughter (Donna (Sardo) Brennan). My family didn't have much money and my mother feared she wouldn't be able to afford this breakfast in a nice restaurant. She talked to Rosemary about this and she responded, "I got this, Aunt Viola!"... She proceed to transform our basement into a 5-star restaurant with her recipes, cooking, and hostess expertise. We had linen tablecloths, silver coffee sets, and food the best restaurants in Syracuse would be jealous of. She made my mother and Donna very happy that day. Thanks Ro - We all love you and will never forget you.

“ I will always remember Rosemary's smiling face and great sense of humor- she was so much fun! She was a phenomenal hostess, and she surely taught her boys to be great hosts! Even when life wasn't fun, you could always count on Rosemary to be a sympathetic listener and make you feel like you were supported. Our family has been blessed to be a part of her family! I am sure that she is up in heaven with my dad, Grandma Dell and all the other members of the Sardo gang, laughing up a storm! Maybe that's how we got all this snow this week!

“ *To Ro's Family, we were classmates and friends growing up in Solvay, I remember the pajama parties at her house, we'd sing and dance and sneak outside to smoke! Great times. I talked to Ro a few weeks ago, she talked I listened, she talked about her boys and what being a grandma meant to her, she said she was going to get stronger and Joe was taking good care of her. We talked about seeing each other again when she was well, sadly it was not to be, I am so glad I made that call to her, and it was like time stood still, it was as if we had just seen each other, that was Ro, she didn't complain we said goodbye and take care and see you soon. You are all in my prayers, God Bless.
