

SALLY "SATCH" (CUTRIE) GATES

May 15, 1946 - April 14, 2026

Sally "Satch" Gates, age 79, of Syracuse, NY, was called home by her eternal Father on Tuesday April 14th, 2026. She was born May 15th 1946, in Ogdensburg, NY.

She was an avid gardener, who spent countless hours pruning her lovely rose bush gardens. She was a graduate of the West Genny Wildcats.

She was quite the athlete, while being a local PBA card holder for bowling and a powerhouse hitter of the softball, however, Satch, had to hit an inside the park homerun to make it to second base, very slow runner she was. Her favorite time of the year was Christmas; she swore she was, Old St. Nick himself; with all the presents she would give out. Her heart was that of gold. The sound of her laugh, brought joy to people within itself.

She got to live out the last part of her life with her son, Sean Gates, her grandson, Landon Gates & Jamie Munger, her future daughter. This was, "My best time of my life"

Sally is survived by her two sons; Carey Cutrie and Sean Gates; her grandsons, Matthew Cutrie and Landon Gates; her sister, Marlene Winters and brother, Jackie Congdon, along with several nieces and nephews.

Family and friends may call Tuesday April 21, 2026 from 4:00 – 6:00 PM at BAGOZZI TWINS FUNERAL HOME, 2601 Milton Ave, Solvay. A Funeral Service will be held 9:30 AM Wednesday April 22, 2026 at the funeral home. Sally will be laid to rest in Greenlawn Memorial Park, Warners.

“ Funeral Tribute for Aunt Sally:

The way I remember my Aunt Sally—a woman who was many things, and never just one.

She was strong. She was bold. She was a little crass, never overly reserved, and always unapologetically herself. And honestly, that’s one of the things I loved most about her. You always knew where you stood with her, and you always knew it was real.

When I was a kid, she had a way of making the simple things feel special. She always had my favorite candy waiting, red hot dogs, and chili that just tasted better when she made it. Those moments stick with you—they weren’t just about food; they were about feeling seen and cared for.

She lived a full and colorful life. She was an expert bowler—competitive and sharp. She worked as a bartender, connecting with people in a way that only she could. She had a personality that filled a room, whether you were ready for it or not.

But alongside all of that strength and edge, she had a softer side too. She collected angels and elephants—little reminders, maybe, of protection, strength, and memory. And through everything in her life, one thing stayed steady: her love for the Lord. Her faith wasn’t just something she talked about—it was something she carried with her.

Her battle with COPD and lung cancer showed us just how strong she really was. She fought hard. And even in that fight, she didn’t lose who she was.

Today, we remember not just what she went through, but who she was—someone who loved deeply, lived honestly, and left a lasting mark on all of us.

She leaves behind her two sons and her grandson, who carry her forward in ways that matter most.

Aunt Sally wasn’t perfect—but she was real, she was loving, and she was ours. And that’s exactly how we’ll remember her (Nephew Scott with love forever)

“ I remember when we flew to Arizona for Carey's (her oldest son) wedding and the second time to see her grandson. She was so scared, i thought that It was going to stop the blood from flowing in my arm because she was holding it so tight. She didn't know that I was scared also. Only time we ever flew.
