“ To Kathy and the Dannible family:
I just learned of Tom's passing as I've been out of town for over six months. My sincere condolences. Tom and I went through apprenticeship together starting in 1975 and worked together many times off and on for 32 years starting in Local 818 and then 267. We shared a lifetime of laughs. I will miss my friend.

“ Another sad passing after seeing our fellow classmate Bob Clary pass unexpectedly last week. I've heard of Tom's difficulties over the last year ad have included him in my prayers. His struggle is over now but it doesn't lessen his passing. May God Bless my classmate's soul, and May He watch over all who loved Tom. R.I.P. my friend.
