“ It was very sad to read that Wanda died. Wanda was my first partner in the office at the School of Management. I am happy, however, to learn that Wanda had a very long and happy life. The two people I miss most from our office was Wanda, and her daughter, Diane (Hi, Diane!). After Wanda retired, she and her husband, Verle, along with me and my wife, Betty, shared some very nice lunches and other occasions. Sad to say, Betty is also no longer with us, She died in 2017. I hope Betty will be among the first to welcome Wanda to her new Home. Good bye Wanda. . from Bob Ranger
