“ Dear Suzanne, , I am so very sorry for your loss. I just found out, as did my brothers.

You mom was a good woman. She always made me laugh. I got to know your mother when my dad came to live with me. I was then invited to the lunch or dinners once a month when they would meet. I even went to breakfast with the boys at Denny's on occasion to say hello to your dad and cousin Jackie. Stephen's passing is so sad as well. Way to young. It's sad to say, but the Colagiovanni family never kept in touch with one another.

We will all just have to wait our turn to see each other again, when we reunite with our family and god. Again, I am so sorry for your loss. May your family heal in time and may your dad, mom and brother be having a great in time in heaven with the rest of the family.

Your cousin, Michele

“ Dear Susan and family, please accept my sincere condolences for your mom. My Aunt had a great but dry sense of humor. I believe the last time I saw you and Steven was at Uncle Nick's funeral. I didn't know about the passing of your brother. And if I remember the last time I saw Aunt Zita and Uncle Nick was at Aunt Theresa's wake. It's unfortunate, but the only time we see family, is at weddings and funerals. Susan, again I'm sorry for your loss of your mom, and brother. May they R.i.P. John (Flip) Colagiovanni

“ Thoughts and prayers to Susan and her family. I am sad also to read the passing of Steven, who I grew up with as they lived directly across the street while growing up. Warp Speed Steven. God bless.
